

Workshops & Retreats 2025

at Park Ecovillage, Findhorn, IV36 3TB, Scotland

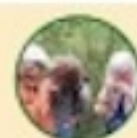

Scottish Charitable Incorporated Organisation (SCIO) No SC045806

Sharing Nature with Children - Training for Educators

Nature Awareness Activities based on a revolutionary course developed by Joseph Cornell. Training for educators and those who want to learn to do environmental education.

21 April

Biodiversity in the Findhorn Hinterland

Learn about some of the plants, lichens, insects and birds in this special area, and the fascinating ecological relationships that link them together as part of the web of life.

31 May

Practical Beekeeping

Hands on training open to everyone from 8 to 98 - total beginners to experienced beekeepers

21 June

Green Burials Workshop

Exploring various dimensions that encompass the whole process of life, dying and death

28 June

Sharing Nature

Nature Awareness Activities for all ages based on a revolutionary course developed by Joseph Cornell

26 July

Practical Beekeeping

Hands on training open to everyone from 8 to 98 - total beginners to experienced beekeepers

16 August

Green Burials Workshop

Exploring various dimensions that encompass the whole process of life, dying and death

6 September

Chunky Bench Making - Weekend Workshop

A fun and hands-on workshop learning how to use different woodworking tools by building a unique wooden bench seat as part of a team effort.

13/14
September

Sharing Nature - a deeper exploration

In this weekend training we will explore the revolutionary course about the value of Nature Awareness developed by Joseph Cornell on a deeper level.

20-21
September

Exploring from the Edges - Weeklong Retreat

A camping retreat to connect with Nature and the rhythms of this magical eco-community. Explore 'Inner listening', 'Co-creation with the Intelligence of Nature' and 'Love in Action'.

22-27
September

Save your place!

www.trybooking.com/uk/eventlist/findhorn

